CM.com publishes Prospectus and announces the indicative price range and offer size for its planned IPO on Euronext Amsterdam

Indicative price range EUR 15.00 to EUR 19.00 per Offer Share

SEPTEMBER 30, 2019 ●

Breda, the Netherlands – Following the announcement of its intention to float on 16 September, 2019, CM.com B.V. (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, “CM.com”), a provider of conversational commerce and payment solutions, today publishes its prospectus (the “Prospectus”), announces the indicative offer price range and offer size for its planned initial public offering and listing on Euronext Amsterdam (the “IPO” or the “Offering”).

The IPO comprises a primary offering of such number of newly issued ordinary shares in the share capital of the Company (the “New Offer Shares”) as will raise gross proceeds of approximately EUR 100 million. In addition, CM.com’s shareholders ClubCompany1 B.V. and ClubCompany2 B.V. (the “Selling Shareholders”) are considering offering up to an aggregate of 500,000 existing ordinary shares in the share capital of the Company (“Existing Offer Shares” and together with the New Offer Shares, the “Offer Shares”) which they currently hold.

Listing of, and first trading in, the Company’s ordinary shares (the “Shares”) on Euronext Amsterdam are expected on Friday 11 October 2019 (the “First Trading Date”).

OFFERING HIGHLIGHTS

- The indicative price range for the Offering is set between EUR 15.00 and EUR 19.00 (inclusive) per Offer Share (the “Offer Price Range”), implying a market capitalisation post IPO for CM.com of EUR 287.5 million to EUR 337.5 million
  - The IPO consists of a primary and a potential secondary component. The primary offering comprises such a number of New Offer Shares as will raise gross proceeds of approximately EUR 100 million and the secondary offering comprises a potential sale by the Selling Shareholders of up to 500,000 Existing Offer Shares
  - CM.com intends to use the net proceeds of the sale of the New Offer Shares to support and develop further growth, and strengthen its operations. In addition, the Company believes that the Offering will strengthen its financial position by enabling it to repay its current debt. The Offering also aims to permit CM.com to incentivize existing and future management and senior staff, and to continue to attract talented employees
  - In addition, the Offering includes an over-allotment option (the “Over-Allotment Option”) for the sale of an additional 15% of the Offer Shares. The Over-Allotment Option is being provided by the Selling Shareholders
  - The Offer Shares will represent a maximum of 37.4% of CM.com’s total issued share capital post IPO excluding exercise of the Over-Allotment Option; assuming exercise in full of the Over-Allotment Option, the Offer Shares will represent a maximum of 43.0% of the total issued share capital of the Company
  - The Offering will be made to institutional and retail investors in the Netherlands, and to certain eligible institutional investors in various other jurisdictions
  - There will be a preferential allocation of Offer Shares to eligible retail investors in the Netherlands (the “Dutch Retail Investors”), representing up to 10% of the Offer Shares and each retail investor will be allocated the first 250 (or fewer) Offer Shares for which such investor subscribes, which may be reduced pro-rata if the retail demand exceeds 10% of the Offering
  - The Offering will take place from 9:00 Central European Time (“CET”) on 30 September 2019 until 14:00 CET on 10 October 2019 for prospective institutional investors and from 9:00 CET on 30 September 2019 until 17:30 CET on 9 October 2019 for prospective retail investors (the “Offering Period”). The timetable for the Offering may be accelerated or extended
  - The final offer price, and the exact number of Offer Shares to be sold and allocated are expected to be announced on 11 October 2019 (subject to the acceleration or extension of the timetable for Offering). Prior to allocation, the Offer Price Range may be changed and the number of Offer Shares may be increased or decreased
  - Listing of and first trading in the Shares on an “as-if-and-when-issued/delivered” basis on Euronext Amsterdam under the symbol “CMCOM” is expected to commence on 11 October 2019
  - Upon a successful completion of the Offering the Company intends to grant approximately 25 key employees with a one-time Shares award, equivalent to two monthly gross fixed salaries per employee. The aggregate amount involved is expected not to exceed EUR 300,000.
  - Upon a successful completion of the Offering the Company intends to grant its Dutch resident employees Share awards. The aggregate amount of Shares involved is expected to be approximately 15,000 Shares.
  - The Company has agreed to a 180-day lock-up. Each of the Selling Shareholders are subject to a 360-day lock-up. The lock-ups are subject to certain customary carve-outs and waiver by the Joint Global Coordinators. The Prospectus as approved by the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets (Stichting Autoriteit Financiële Markten, the “AFM”) is available on the CM.com website www.cm.com/investor-relations
  - Following the completion of the Offering the two founders of CM.com will together remain majority shareholders
- Jeroen van Glabbeek, CEO and co-founder of CM.com said: “2019 has been an exciting year so far in which everything fell into place. We succeeded in becoming a direct partner of Apple, WhatsApp, Google and other OTT players, enabling us to offer a true multi-channel communications platform and making us one of just six market players worldwide with WhatsApp and Apple. In addition, we strengthened our competitive position in the payments industry after we were admitted as a principal member of MasterCard. Last but not least we were able to continue to successfully innovate and expand our business. For us the launch of our IPO and the expected listing at Euronext Amsterdam is the logical next step to accelerate growth, increase our global footprint and capitalize on the increased demand. We have completed all our preparations towards a listing and have seen an encouraging level of interest from the investment community so far. We look forward to the opportunities the IPO will bring to CM.com.”

CM.COM HIGHLIGHTS

- CM.com is a global mobile services provider that offers its customers a combination of end-to-end private cloud-based communication and payment services, complemented by a portfolio of supplementary platform features, including ticketing, identity, eSignature and customer data platform services
- CM.com believes that it is strategically well positioned to benefit from the expected growth in the omni-channel communications market. The global CPaaS enterprise spend is expected to increase from USD 1.6 billion in 2017 to USD 6.7 billion in 2022, which corresponds to a compound annual growth rate of approximately 33% (Source: Juniper Research)
- CM.com operates globally and has 14 regional, local and virtual offices
- CM.com has a diverse, highly skilled work force of approximately 267 employees (as at 30 June 2019)
- CM.com’s customer base includes Tier 1 enterprises, government agencies as well as small and medium sized enterprises. As at 30 June 2019, its customer base consisted of approximately 9,322 customers from approximately 140 countries. CM.com has a strong track record of winning new “Forbes Global 2000” customers such as Tencent, Alibaba.com, McDonalds and Accor Hotels
- CM.com’s customer base generates a strong recurring revenue, as the existing customers base has proven loyal in nature which is demonstrated by the low CPaaS<sup>(1)</sup> churn rate of 0.9% over the year ended 31 December 2018
- Co-founders, Jeroen van Glabbeek (Chief Executive Officer) and Gilbert Gooijers (Chief Operating Officer), founded the company in 1999 and have been the driving force in developing the business. They intend to remain actively involved in the Company after the IPO. In addition, the Company has established a professional management team with many years of experience in the industry
- Following the IPO the supervisory board (the “Supervisory Board”) will consist of Martin van Pernis (chairman), Chris Figee (vice-chairman), Diederik Karsten, David de Buck, Mariken Tannemaat and Lex Beins
- CM.com has maintained a solid financial performance, with revenues of EUR 84.6 million in 2018, compared to EUR 79.9 million in 2017
- In the year ended 31 December 2018, CM.com processed nearly 2 billion messages, over 100 million minutes of voice calls, and approximately EUR 595 million in payment transactions
- CM.com has the infrastructure to add additional payment solutions to its CM.com platform. CM Payments B.V. was granted a Payment Service Provider (PSP) license by the Dutch Central Bank (De Nederlandsche Bank) in 2016 and it is a principal member of MasterCard. Businesses are increasingly adding purpose-built payment methods to their digital offering, which is expected to assist CM.com to attract more enterprise customers

1. “CPaaS Churn Rate” represents the ratio of revenue from CPaaS Customers that generated more than EUR 10,000 in revenue in a given year but that were not Customers on 1 January of the following year, to total revenue in that given year. Because this measure is calculated on the basis of full year data, half year comparatives are not meaningful.

PREFERENTIAL RETAIL ALLOCATION

There will be a preferential allocation of Offer Shares to Dutch Retail Investors in accordance with applicable law and regulations. Each Dutch Retail Investor will be allocated the first 250 (or fewer) Offer Shares for which such investor subscribes. However, if the total number of Offer Shares subscribed for by Dutch Retail Investors under the Preferential Retail Allocation exceeds 10% of the total number of Offer Shares, assuming no exercise of the Over-Allotment Option, the preferential allocation to each Dutch Retail Investor may be reduced pro rata to the first 250 (or fewer) Offer Shares for which such investor applies.

To be eligible for the Preferential Retail Allocation, Dutch Retail Investors must place their subscriptions during the period commencing on 30 September at 9:00 CET and ending on 9 October 2019 at 17:30 CET through financial intermediaries. Different financial intermediaries may apply deadlines before the closing time of the Offering Period.
